

What Is The Greater Hackensack Chamber Of Commerce?

The Greater Hackensack Chamber of Commerce (GHCC) has been serving the community since 1933. During both prosperous and challenging times, the GHCC is involved in a variety of programs to support the well-being of the business community, the city and the surrounding area. We are a voluntary group of business and professional people dedicated to promoting civic, business and community success. We harness the tremendous potential of the private enterprise system enabling our members to accomplish collectively what no one can do individually.

The mission of the Greater Hackensack Chamber of Commerce is to:

- Promote economic vitality and business success in our area;
- assist our members to maximize their competitive business advantage;
- enhance the value of our community as a place to work, live and invest through leadership and a shared vision of excellence.

The Chamber demonstrates the goals of its Mission Statement by:

- Promoting a purpose, awareness and viability of the GHCC;
- expanding through cooperative working relationships with other community agencies;
- providing and promoting business, employment, and educational opportunities in our communities.
